MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING (MoU)

- 1.3 to jointly organize seminars, conferences, or workshops on topics of mutual interest and to invite each other's faculty to participate therein
- 1.4 to exchange, on a reciprocal basis, students at Undergraduate, Graduate, and Doctoral levels for limited periods for education and /or research.

2. Joint Sponsored Research, Development and Consulting

ECC and MBGPGC agree to help identify and invite faculty members from the other institution to participate in research or development programmes. The terms and conditions for such participation will be worked out by mutual agreement between ECC and MBGPGC

3. Exchange of Faculty and Staff

ECC and MBGPGC agree to encourage collaboration between faculty and staff from the two institutions. Specifically, institutions will encourage members of their faculties to undertake short visits to or take up fixed-term visiting assignments at, each other's institution as per the existing norms. Notwithstanding the above, ECC and MBGPGC will examine ways to identify financial resources to fund international travel by their faculty/students.

4. Student Exchange

ECC and MBGPGC agree that student exchange will be guided by the principles listed below. A home institution refers to the institution where a student is a full-time student, and from where he/she is expected to graduate. A host institution refers to an institution that receives a student for a brief period to undertake a pre-determined program of study or research.

- 4.1 Exchange students will be selected by mutual agreement between the home institution and the host institution.
- 4.2 An exchange student will continue to be treated as a full-time student at his/her home institution.
- 4.3 An exchange student will be considered a full-time "exchange" student at the host institution.
- 4.4 His/her program of study at the host institution will be determined by mutual consultation between his/her academic advisor at the home institution and his/her "interim" academic advisor identified by the host institution.
- 4.5 The host institution will evaluate an exchange student's performance in each course or module, award a letter grade or marks, and issue a letter to that effect.

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING (MoU)

- 4.6 The home institution may award to the exchange student credits earned at a host institution, but only after the home institution has established correspondence between courses taken at the host institution vis-a-vis those offered at the home institution.
- 4.7 If an exchange student has undertaken research, then the host institution will evaluate the exchange student's performance in the research, and issue a letter to that effect, together with a technical "report" of the research carried out.
- 4.8 If an exchange student has undertaken research, then the home institution will take note of the performance evaluation and the technical report, and take steps by its procedures.
- 4.9 To avail travel expenses, students can apply for existing funding programs at their respective home institutions.
- 4.10 The exchange students will pay tuition and other fees at their home institution.

5. Exchange of Scientific and Technical Material

ECC and MBGPGC will exchange information on research and educational programs, teaching/learning material, and other literature relevant to their educational and research programs. Further, ECC and MBGPGC agree to explore ways to share teaching/ learning material, and other relevant literature, while respecting each other's intellectual property and other rights.

6. Joint Conferences, workshops, and short-term courses

ECC and MBGPGC agree to help identify and invite faculty members from the other institution to participate in conferences, workshops, and short-term courses. The terms and conditions for such participation will be worked out by mutual agreement between ECC and MBGPGC.

7. Intellectual Property

ECC and MBGPGC agree to respect each other's rights to intellectual property. Further, the intellectual property rights that arise as a result of any collaborative research or activity under this MoU will be worked out on a case-by-case basis and will be consistent with the officially laid down IPR policies of the two institutions.

8. Tenure and Termination

This MoU will take effect from the date it is signed by representatives of the two institutions. It will remain valid for five years and may be continued thereafter after suitable review and agreement. Either institution may terminate the MoU by giving written notice to the other institution six months in advance. Once terminated, neither ECC nor MBGPGC will be responsible for any losses, financial or otherwise, which the other institutions may suffer.
