STRENGTHS	WEAKNESS
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Ewing Christian College lies in its huge campus, its forward looking Board of Governors, its more than hundred and fourteen year history of struggle and survival, laced with string of successes, its autonomy completing three cycles of extension, its community college status, its unique status as the only centrally funded constituent college in the country enjoying autonomous status, its committed faculty, its alumni, spread all over the country and abroad, and its academic linkages with overseas institutions. ▪ Within the given constraints, the implementation of autonomy in the College, and its achievements thereof, might be treated as a success story. ▪ Conversion of the campus into an e-learning hub is another strong point of the College. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ The weakness of College was its undergraduate status, but now (June 2016) it has been permitted to start postgraduate classes which will open faculty to do academic innovations, apart from its role to teaching the students with full commitment.
OPPORTUNITIES	CHALLENGES

THE ANNUAL QUALITY ASSURANCE REPORT (AQAR)-2015-2016

<ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ The College wants to brace itself up to convert these Challenges into Opportunities.▪ Another area for growth being explored is the area of research, extension and consultancy.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ Higher education is facing threats of becoming globally competitive, on one hand and to become self-financed, on the other. This requires sharper acumen on the part of the educational administrators than that required by the CEOs of business organizations.
